EXPERIENCE

Since starting RLMA in February 1984, Mr. Miller has taken an active role in each of the firm's major projects. His ability to look at the "big picture" is evident in the constructability and economy of his designs. In addition to engineering, Mr. Miller is also responsible for the development of new business, client relations, and contract negotiations.

Prior to starting RLMA, Mr. Miller was the Vice-President of GCE of Illinois.
